Dear Parents and Carers,

Re: Show Racism the Red Card - Friday, 18th October 2024

We would like to inform you about an upcoming event at Kelvin Hall School that is central to our commitment to promoting equality, diversity, and inclusivity among our students.

We are pleased to announce that on Friday, 18th October 2024, Kelvin Hall School will be participating in the "Show Racism the Red Card" campaign, led by the British educational charity of the same name. This event aims to raise awareness of the ongoing issue of racism and how we, as a school community, can work together to combat it.

To mark this important day, we invite all pupils to participate by wearing something red to school. This could be red socks, a scarf, or any other accessory that complements their usual school uniform. Please note that this is not a non-uniform day; students are still required to wear their regular uniform but can incorporate a red accessory of their choice.

In addition, students will be provided with red "Show Racism the Red Card" badges, which they can pin to their clothing. These badges serve as a visible symbol of their support for this cause and our collective stand against racism.

To further show our support, we will be organising a donation collection on the teal line as students enter school. There will also be an option for parents and carers to make a donation via the ParentPay app, which you use to top up your child's dinner card and pay for school trips. All contributions will go towards supporting the valuable work of the "Show Racism the Red Card" charity.

By participating in this event, students will have the opportunity to engage in meaningful discussions about the importance of inclusivity, empathy, and respect for diversity. These conversations will help to foster a greater sense of unity and understanding within our school community.

We kindly ask for your support in encouraging your child to participate in this event on Friday, 18th October 2024, by wearing a red accessory or displaying the provided badge. Through these actions, we hope to instil in our students the responsibility to promote a more inclusive and accepting world.

Thank you for your continued partnership in helping us create a school environment that upholds the values of equality and diversity. Together, we can Show Racism the Red Card and work towards a more inclusive future.

If you have any questions or need further information, please feel free to contact the school at 01482 342 229 or via email at info@kelvinhall.net.

Thank you for your support with this important initiative.

Kind regards,

Mr Shaw
