Dear Parents and Carers,

Re: Show Racism the Red Card - Friday, 20th October 2023

We would like to inform you about an upcoming event at Kelvin Hall School that carries great significance in our commitment to promoting equality, diversity, and inclusivity among our students.

We are pleased to announce that on Friday, 20th October 2023, Kelvin Hall School will be participating in the "Show Racism the Red Card" campaign, spearheaded by the British educational charity of the same name. The objective of this event is to raise awareness of the issue of racism and how we can collectively combat it as a school community.

To mark this important occasion, we invite all pupils to take part in a simple yet impactful gesture: we ask that they come to school wearing something red. This red item can be socks, a scarf, or any accessory, which they can wear alongside their regular school uniform. This is not a non-uniform day; students are expected to adhere to the standard school uniform guidelines, but they are encouraged to accessorise with a red item of their choice.

Furthermore, red "Show Racism the Red Card" badges will be available for students to pin to their clothing. These badges serve as a visible symbol of their support for this crucial cause, demonstrating our united stand against racism.

By participating in this event, our students will have the opportunity to engage in discussions about the importance of inclusivity, empathy, and respecting diversity. These conversations will help to foster a sense of unity and understanding within our school community.

We kindly request your support in encouraging your child to participate in this event on Friday, 20th October 2023, by wearing a red accessory, or the provided badge. Through this small but meaningful action, we hope to instil in our students a sense of responsibility and empathy for promoting a more inclusive and accepting world.

We appreciate your continued partnership in nurturing a school environment that upholds the values of equality and diversity. Together, we can Show Racism the Red Card and work towards a more inclusive future.

If you have any questions or require further information about the event, please do not hesitate to contact the school on 01482 342 229 or via email to info@kelvinhall.net.

Thank you for your support with this important initiative.

Kind regards,

Mr Shaw
Deputy Headteacher
Kelvin Hall School
